Summer Event Information

Edmonton Heritage Festival - August 2nd to 4th

Edmonton Exhibition Lands & Borden Park

The Edmonton Heritage Festival is the world's largest three-day multiculturalism celebration. The festival showcases a diversity of cuisine, entertainment, interpretive materials, and crafts worldwide. There is no admission fees to enter or to watch the many cultural dances and folk music shows throughout the day. Attendees will be able to purchase various food made by the pavilions.

Cariwest - August 8th to 10th

Churchill Square in downtown Edmonton

Through our annual carnival celebration, we create a platform for the vibrant Caribbean community in Edmonton & Western Canada, to showcase their infectious music, energetic performances, savoury cuisine, and share the vibrant spirit of the Caribbean with the wider community. Go to cariwest.ca for more information and parade route (August 9th).

Edmonton International Fringe Theatre Festival - August 14th to 24th

Old Strathcona

Each year, the Edmonton International Fringe Theatre Festival spotlights more than 220 theatre productions in 40 venues featuring performances by more than 1,600 Artists from right here at home, across Canada, and around the world! Go to fringetheatre.ca for more information.

Deadline for submissions to the September Newsletter is Tuesday, August 12th.

2025 Poundmaker's Lodge Annual Powwow

A celebration of culture, healing, and community.

August 22, 23 and 24

Poundmaker's Lodge

Treatment Centre

25108 Poundmaker Road, St. Albert

This special gathering is a time for connection and reflection, where we come together in the spirit of tradition, resilience, and unity. Through ceremony, song, and dance, we honour our cultures, support healing, and strengthen the bonds that bring our communities together.

For more information, please get in touch with Carla Jamison, Community Engagement Officer, at Carla-Jamison@poundmaker.org or 780-458-1884 Ext: 105.
